Reading

1. Participants can enter for prepared, unprepared, or both types of reading.
2. Participants must provide a copy of their prepared reading to the adjudicator. Remember the choice of script must suit the age of the participant and will be assessed accordingly.
3. No pieces used in previous competitions may be re-used.
4. Time duration: Primary School: 30 – 60 seconds
 High Schools: 60 – 90 seconds
5. These guidelines are applicable to both online, as well as venue performances.

Guidelines to follow for PREPARED READING and SCRIPTURAL READING (English and/or Afrikaans)

- Prepare THREE pieces (it can be in book format or tablet) of 1 – 1,5 minutes. The adjudicator will choose which piece must be read on the day of the competition. The three pieces may be in the same book or different books. Make sure to bring all chosen material. Please be aware that the adjudicator can stop the participant when they have heard enough.
- Make sure the piece that you are reading is on your level. (A good book to use is your reading book at school or one that your teacher proposes.) It may count against you if the book is too easy or difficult.
- When participating in Scriptural reading, it is also important that you prepare THREE pieces on your own level. Primary school learners may read a Bible story. High school learners may read more or less 6 verses from a Bible book. Reading pieces must be between 1 and 1.5 minutes long (You may use a Tablet or Book). The Adjudicator may ask you to stop at any time when he/she has heard enough.
- Remember: Before reading your piece, you must announce the name and writer of the book. When doing Scriptural reading, you must announce the name of the Bible book, script, and verse numbers.
- Marks will be given for the following: Pronunciation, use of voice, handling of reading material, eye contact with audience while reading, facial expressions, and how comfortable you are. (Also for reading from tablets.)
- Important: Do not study the piece by heart. Be well prepared (for example) for the pronunciation of certain words.

Guidelines for UNPREPARED READING OR SCRIPTURAL READING (English and/or Afrikaans)

- A book will be supplied, as well as the page number to be read. As soon as the adjudicator has assessed the reading, he/she will ask the learner to stop. You may finish the sentence to end appropriately.
- Although you might not start at the beginning of the book or paragraph, it is always recommended to announce the author and book name before reading. In the case of Bible reading, the adjudicator will announce the book and verse to be read – there after the reader must announce the information as well.
- Marks are awarded for the following: Pronunciation, tone of voice, handling of the book, eye contact, facial expressions, and how comfortable the reader seems whilst reading.

ADDITIONAL GUIDELINES FOR ONLINE PARTICIPATION

CATEGORY READING: REPAIRED READING

1. Learners must still prepare THREE pieces to read. (You do not have to mail any photocopies to Con Spirito)
